A NATIVE SON AND FARMER OF BOW RIVER CONSTITUENCY

(INSERTED BY BOW RIVER FEDERAL LIBERAL ASSOC.)

The Battle Of The Sexes Goes On

(By Hal Boyle)
Curbstone comments by the poor man's philosopher.
Every war in history has ended except the war between the sexes. It goes on.
Since love is always a kind of duel, men and women remain at best friendly enemies in a see-saw war in which no final victory is possible for either side.

Marriage is no ultimate peace settlement of the strange conflict. Marriage is a kind of give and take truce, the terms of which change from day to day. It is an endless adventure in armistice between two united but different people, whose challenge is to find so much living satisfaction in their long private war that they escape its greater danger — discovering they are stalemated.

Who is the aggressor in the long war between the sexes?
Women never lose all their hostility toward men, according to Dr. Allison Davis, a University of Chicago psychologist.
Blaming this attitude on the fact that in America women occupy an inferior position, Dr. Davis told a Detroit society convention.

"Yet once they become reconciled to the feminine role, most of their hostility toward the male is dissipated, but never all of it."
Another psychologist, a fellow called Sigmund Freud, postulated the theory that feminine envy of the male begins as soon as girls realize they can never be boys, and that they bear a grudge ever afterward.

This has always seemed to me an ivory tower idea if there ever was one, a theory based on the male conceit that women, if they had a choice, would prefer to be men. It implies man is the stronger sex and women resent men because life forces them to lean on him — in other words, it is the resentment a slave in his heart toward even the kindest master.

But isn't this theory actually an example of mistaken male egotism? The truth is — as later research has shown — that women are biologically far superior to men, and more adaptable. They can subsist on less food than men. They can stand weather changes better. They can stand loneliness better, and civilization better.

They are more practical in every way. This is proved by the fact they outlive men while accomplishing two feats beyond the capacity of men — the wearing of girdles, the bearing of children.

Women envy men? It is the other way around. The hostility men bear toward women is based purely on fear — the instinctive realization that women are stronger in mind and will and have the power to change them from the carefree, boasting bums nature intended men to be.

The hostility of woman toward men, on the other hand, is a recognition on her part not that she is dependent on him but that life has given her the role of being missionary to a savage. It is the hostility perfection always feels towards the imperfect.

What is a happy ending in the war between the sexes? Practically none.

The gulf, if anything, appears to be widening. The American woman is getting stronger and more powerful in every field, from the kitchen to the Congress. Despite pension plans and a shorter work week, the American man has been unable to overcome his natural born weaknesses and keep up with her. She still outlives him, outlasts him and outtalks him.

The wise man, seeking the best compromise between the sexes, has only two choices:

—Become a hermit.
—Marry the strongest minded woman on the horizon and hope that, recognizing her superiority, her hostility toward his own weak and wayward nature will dissolve in a feeling of pity.

As the old saying goes, fellas, if you can't beat 'em — join 'em!

You probably have your own equally good reasons for saving. There are thousands.
One way to be sure you will have the money you want when you want it is to make regular deposits in your bank account.
It takes will-power. Sometimes it means doing without things you are tempted to buy.
But as you advance steadily toward your chosen objective, you know the satisfying feeling that comes with getting ahead financially. You realize that you are creating a reserve of ready cash that can be a bulwark in time of need. You can always count on a bank account.

Just For The Record . . .

This time it's for sure — the new hospital wing (and it's a good one) will be opened on Wednesday, June 12. We understand there will be prominent speakers present to hand out the verbal bouquets to those who had a part in making the extension possible. We think those who were largely responsible for the new deal will be just as happy to take a look-see at the new building — the bouquets will be an aftermath, but a nice one!

Just For The Record . . .

The birds and the bees, and most of the trees, are all out now — some of the flowers and some of the sprouts are sprouting. We've had a few showers, but not enough yet, to save those poor water pumps from splittin' their ??? Reports from town officials say too much water is being used. The water is there but the pumps can't handle the heavy consumption that hits them during humid periods. It has been suggested, rightfully so, that all water-line residents curtail unnecessary use of the water system as much as possible during the hotter season. If we look in the right direction the water will come to us, and not through a tap!

Just For The Record . . .

Next Monday, June 10 to be exact, you will have the opportunity to put your plug in for those who will represent "our Canada" for the next four years. Take your pick — there's four candidates in the field in the Red Deer Constituency and the same number in the Bow River Constituency, both of which are covered by our list of subscribers. As we have mentioned before, take your pick, but please vote — use that franchise you've been willed to, being a citizen of a free country. Who could ask for more?

Just For The Record . . .

NO THE WOMEN ARE TO BLAME

In the office of a woods operator in the Dryden area they were talking about forest fires when a misanthropic old lumberjack entered the discussion. Mr. Frank E. Sider, district forester for the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, reports the lumberjack's contribution:

"If it wasn't for women we would not have these fires. When I was a young feller, men chewed tobacco and did not go around burning up the bush. It is only during the last 40 odd years that these cigarette smokers started their own career of destruction."

Nearly every home had a spittoon near the old man's armchair, then women got refined and started calling them cuspidors. This was the beginning of the end; the old man was soon told that tobacco chewing was a filthy habit and finally he had to slip off to the barn where he could relax in peace. They enlisted their daughters in the crusade and they dictated to their sweethearts, tips that touch chewing tobacco will never touch mine. And now, a man has to travel miles to find a store that stocks good chewing.

That is getting back to original causes, and really the situation is much broader than the forests. Many a fire in an easy chair or chesterfield would never have happened if the occupants of those living quarters had chewed tobacco instead of smoking. A waste basket filled with loose papers and a carelessly-thrown cigarette end can make a dangerous combination. The cuspidor and a face full of chewing tobacco may win no medals in aesthetic contests but they are calculated to put out fires, rather than start them.

But the wheel has turned, the women had their way, the cuspidor in the home or office, is as extinct as the dodo, and while old-timers like our Dryden lumberjack may sing a lament for the passing of the old days of the shiny brass spittoon, the clock cannot be turned back.

Women are like that — if you can't beat 'em, you gotta' join 'em!

LET'S SMILE FOR A WHILE

WHO SAID THAT ???

There's nothing like a dish towel to wipe that contented look off a married man's face!

WRONG NUMBER !!!

Young Ezra was going around with a city gal who was visiting her grandparents in the country. One evening, as Ezra and the girl were strolling across a pasture, they saw a cow and calf rubbing noses.

"Goosh," Ezra said, "that sight makes me want to do the same."

"Well, go ahead," the gal said. "It's your cow."

NEED ANY HELP ???

We heard the story about a man who was suing for damages sustained in a traffic accident.

"You've changed your story," sneered the defendant's counsel.

"Here's what happened," said the plaintiff: "I'm ambling along with my old horse and wagon when this motorist knocks us into a ditch."

What a mess! There am I, flat on my back with my legs in the air; my horse likewise. The guy gets out of his car, sees my horse has a broken leg, pulls out his pistol and shoots him. Then he turns to me and says, 'Now, what about you? Are you hurt, too?'

NOT LATELY !!!

A poet, out meditating in the country, noticed a farmer looking at him curiously.

"Ah," said the poet, "perhaps you, too, have seen the golden-red fingers of dawn speeding across the eastern sky, the red-stained sulphurous sleets floating in a lake of fire in the west, the ragged clouds at midnight, blotting out the shuddering moon?"

"No," replied the farmer, "not lately. I've been on the wagon for over a year."

BUT TRUE !!!

Doing a turn as a sitter, a grandmother showed photographs of her wedding, and got the comment: "In these pictures, Grandma, you were new!"

ARE YOU SATISFIED ?

Notes From D.A.

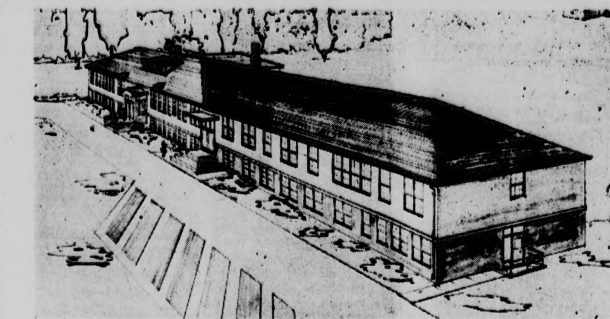

By HOWARD J. FULCHER

Mechanical grazing involves cutting pasture forage and feeding it to animals in dry lot or stable. Daily clippings are made in the field and hauled to the cattle in their feeding area. It is not a new practice but has been used mostly on large dairy farms. With new forage harvesting machinery more people are becoming interested in this feeding program.

When a forage field is "mechanically grazed" and hauled to the cattle with proper timing of cutting it is possible to provide a continuous supply of grass at its most nutritious stage of growth. This type of grazing eliminates the necessary fencing which is required when running the cattle on pasture.

There is a considerable saving in forage as cattle on pasture waste about 40 per cent through trampling contamination and lying down. Many operators using this method of grazing claim they get a more uniform milk flow; this feature may be partly due to having cattle near water at all times.

There are some disadvantages to this system, the cost may be increased because of the machinery and labor involved in handling the forage. There is also the problem of hauling out manure, which otherwise would be spread on the fields as the cattle graze. It has been observed that grass recovery from mechanical grazing is not as rapid as that from natural cattle grazing. Bunks or self-feeding wagons must be provided in the feeding lot. When wet weather continues for a few days forage fields may become too soft for machinery to operate successfully. Experiments are being carried out and comparisons being made with various means of grazing, such as free grazing, rotational grazing, and mechanical grazing. Mechanical grazing appears to make fuller use of pasture acreage but increases the cost some. As pasture becomes scarcer and more valuable there may develop a definite swing in this direction.

THIS BUSINESS OF VOTING

Several people in The News office were discussing the matter of voting, and arguing about how elections could be simplified. Various methods were mooted and discarded and there seemed to be no solution because of various objections to leaving out certain safeguards. One of the group in the office, who had said nothing, finally spoke up: "Well, there's one thing you could do. Let Russia take over and it would simplify elections," and then he strolled away and let

Wilf Says

W. J. (WILF) EDGAR

In the past 10 years Canada has been one of the fastest growing countries of the world in terms of population, wealth and particularly in terms of business and industry. Currently Canada is growing faster than the United States.

Canada is the fourth largest trading nation in the world and her per capita foreign trade is the largest.

One of the most promising developments since 1945 is the very large increase in national consumption of food. This results in increased marketing at home and less need to depend on the export trade. Farmers get more for their products in Canada than abroad.

Under the Liberal administration incomes have risen more than the prices of goods and services so that we have enjoyed a rising standard of living and more of the comforts and pleasures of life. Increased income allowed greater purchases of better foods such as meat, eggs, fruit and vegetables with a corresponding benefit to the farmer. For example yearly meat consumption per capita in 1935 was 118.3 lbs. and in 1955 was up to 151.5 lbs. The Trans-Canada Highway has already cost the Federal government $93,723,334. The assistance of the federal government was increased from 50 to 90 per cent on 10 per cent of the mileage in any province. This will speed up the work of completing the road. In 1956 new legislation was passed under which the federal government set the pace for the country by providing equal pay for equal work by women in the federal civil service.

The statement that an opposition member has more influence on the policies than a member of the government party is rather ridiculous. I have been in the fortunate position of having been president of the Alberta Liberal Association and an executive member of the Liberal Federation of Canada for the past five years. It has been my privilege to sit down and discuss problems with the Cabinet. I consider a statement that no attention is paid to an ordinary member of the government is so ridiculous as to not require comment.

The Cabinet are only too glad to have people who are competent to give advice — not just voice criticism. If any opposition member can do so much, why have various groups approached me in my capacity as president of the Alberta Liberal group to help them?

WEDDINGS

STAUFFER — SIEMENS

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends took place on Thursday, May 9 at 1:30 in the afternoon, in the United Missionary Church, Didsbury, when Miss Wida Ruth Siemens became the bride of Mr. Clarence Arthur Stauffer. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Siemens of Westward Ho, and the groom the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stauffer of Didsbury.

The double-ring ceremony was solemnized before an altar which was tastefully set with spring flowers and ferns, by Rev. Ray Shantz of Didsbury, assisted by Rev. Gordon Dedels of Sundre. The bride and groom repeated their vows to each other.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, chose for her wedding a gown of traditional white satin, which featured a fitted bodice and puffed skirt, studded with pearls and brilliant-cut long hilly-point sleeves and a dropped waist line, from which cascaded the full skirt in train. Her finger-tip veil, also accented with pearls and brilliant-cut, fell gracefully from a pretty tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of salmon pink gladioli. Her only jewelry was a tiny heart-shaped brooch, a gift of the groom.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids all wore jacket dresses of net over taffeta in three-quarter length, and matching chapel veils. Mrs. Kenneth Dufor of Edmonton was her sister's matron of honor. Her dress was lemon yellow and she carried a bouquet of white snap dragons and blue iris. Miss Githel Siemens of Edmonton, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Margaret Penner of Didsbury, acted as bridesmaids and wore blue and pink frocks respectively. Both carried rose snap dragons and blue iris.

The bride's tiny sister, Glenda Dawn Marie Siemens, made a cute flower girl in a blue frock-organza dress, also in three-quarter length. The overskirt was caught up at the hem with pink roses and lily of the valley. She wore pink shoes and bonnet and in her white-gloved hand carried a crocheted basket of yellow roses and lily of the valley.

Supporting the groom was his brother, Mr. Wayne Stauffer, of Didsbury, while the bride's brother, David Siemens of Calgary, and the groom's cousin Mr. Glen Eby of Didsbury, assisted the guests. While the bridal pair knelt at the altar the groom's sister, Mrs. Donald Suder, sang "A Wedding Prayer" and during the signing of the registry she sang "O Perfect Love." The organist was the groom's aunt, Mrs. Arthur Eby of Didsbury.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a dress of rosy lilac faille with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother looked lovely in a dress of aqua frosted nylon with which she wore pink accessories, with which she wore a pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed in the dining room of Mountain View Bible College. A buffet lunch was served to 150 guests, with Mrs. Donald Suder and Mrs. Willard Stauffer presiding. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful three-tiered cake, which was decorated by Mrs. M. Snyder. The room was decorated to represent a rose arbor and to carry out the theme the six waitresses, all friends of the bride, wore aprons shaped like a rose.

A program was rendered during the luncheon, with Rev. Don Taylor as master of ceremonies.

For going away the bride chose a knitted suit in a shade of red which she topped with a white nylon shorty coat. She wore a white hat and navy accessories, with yellow roses on corsage.

The honeymoon was spent in Ontario and other points of interest. The newly-weds will make their home in Banff.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The completeness and perfection of God's creation will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the Lesson-Sermon topic. Bible selections to be read include the following from Jeremiah 51:10: "The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the Lord our God."

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (275:17): "No wisdom is wise but His wisdom: no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows."

The Golden Text is from Revelation 4:11: "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

Junior Farmers Judge Cattle

More than 200 club members, parents and friends attended.

Members judged three classes of purebred Herefords. A demonstration of washing, currying and showmanship was also given. Basketball games were played in the afternoon.

The five clubs will gather at Carstairs for their annual achievement day and sale on June 5.

The club leaders are Harold Schielke, Carstairs; Jim Hughes, West Didsbury; Sandy Brander, East Didsbury; Vair Reed, Cremona; and Laurence Fisher, Oida.

They met with representatives of the Carstairs Chamber of Commerce for final arrangements on the June 5 program.

BOOM VERSUS BOOMLESS

SPRAYERS: There long has been considerable controversy over the merits of the two types of field sprayers. This argument goes on every year. Actually both types have their own particular merits. Each is designed specifically to do a certain type of a job to the best advantage.

For roadside and fence line spraying you can't beat a boomless type of sprayer, also for very rough ground and brush spraying.

However, for field crops where you want to be very sure of an even application of material to kill the weeds without crop injury, I would certainly favor the boom type. There are two things that you want to accomplish when you set out to spray your crop. The first thing is that you want to kill the weeds effectively; secondly, you want to avoid crop damage from overspray. Due to wind velocities causing changing spray patterns with a boomless sprayer you are pretty well limited to the use of this type of machine on days without any wind. These kind of days are hard to find and, since the spraying season is short and crops grow rapidly, there is a fairly narrow margin of time when the job should be done.

I feel that there is more practicability and prospect of better satisfaction assured if a boom type of sprayer is used for regular field crop spraying.

THE STUDENT OF HALF CENTURY AGO

On his way to his first field, as he waited between trains, he called on the minister in the town. He made himself acquainted and was enjoying a friendly chat with his more experienced brother, when the lady of the parsonage came in. She joined in the informal meeting for a few minutes, then she left the room. Then she called her husband out and said to him: "Surely our church is not sending that boy out to preach, is it?" He, the husband, replied: "It seems so." To this she said: "It's wrong. Something ought to be done about it."

The young minister took the mixed train, and got off as directed. He was a total stranger in this big new West. Everybody was hustling to get away from the little station as fast as possible. The homesteaders were anxious to get home before dark. The new prairie trails were not too easily followed, and travelling was slow, whether the wagon was hauled by oxen or by horses.

The station platform was almost clear of people and luggage. His own tiny trunk lay still on the truck where it had been dumped by the trainmen. Then quietly, like a fairy, a small girl under school age and very shy, came up and asked: "Are you the new student from the East?" On being told that he was, she said, in a very business-like way, Mr. W. — had to be away today, meaning her minister, but they just wait here. I'll find some body to take you out, and she did.

In a few minutes a farmer came along. He loaded the little trunk on the top of an already over-loaded wagon. The student climbed on the seat, beside him, and he was on his way to his first charge. He did not get off that seat until long after midnight, when the wagon stopped at what seemed to be nothing but a hillside.

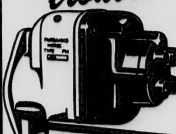

There was one small light showing through a small window. The student slept that night, as he did many succeeding nights, under the ead. This homestead house was a dugout in a hillside, but it was the home of a fine Christian family.

There was a welcome there. The father who had waited his son's return slipped out of his easy chair, which by the way was a part of an old barber-shop chair, and with outstretched hand said: "Welcome my son." No words could ever mean more than those simple, honest words, so kindly spoken, to that tired, lonely lad, at that time. Sunday came. This was to be a five-point charge. There were four points to receive fortnightly service, and the fifth point received service every Sunday evening. There was always a drive of 35 or 40 miles to be made on Saturday, because the complete weekly trip was between 75 and 80 miles.

That first Sunday a farmer very kindly drove the student to the first series of services and carefully pointed out where the next week's preaching places were to be found. From that on the student was entirely on his own efforts.

This first morning the service was held in the open on the hillside. The day was sunny and warm. This was a new venture in a new district; but may we pause to say, services have been held in that district ever since.

JUST ANOTHER POEM —
BUT GOOD !!!

The mosquitoes come back every spring
With their buzzing and their stinging.
When you get set in your easy chair
They will soon find out that are there.
And come to you on tiny wings.
Bringing with them their red hot stings.
Why don't they all go to a nudist camp.
Where they could really go on the ramp;
There they would find people fat and thin.
And it would be easy to get their stingers in.
I hope I will live for the day to see.
When all the sloughs are filled with D.T.D.
And it will scare the mosquitoes so far away.
They won't come back to Judgment Day.

W.C.T.U. Convention Held Here

Didsbury was privileged to have entertained the 44th annual convention of the Alberta, Provincial Women's Christian Temperance Union. The business sessions during the day were held in Mountain View Bible College chapel. The evening services were held in the United Missionary Church.

The first evening services were held in the United Missionary Church.

The first evening service featured a medal contest consisting of vocal selections rendered by six young ladies from Didsbury and surrounding districts. Miss Lorene Snyder of Carstairs, was the winner. The second evening Rev. L. Foss, of the United Gospel Mission in Calgary was the guest speaker and he also showed a temperance film.

Reports were given by the president of each district which showed much active organization in community and welfare work. Extensive plans were drawn up for the coming year.

A highlight of the convention was the banquet which was held on Thursday evening, which was well attended, not only by the convention members but by a number of guests from the town.

Mrs. R. W. Short of Edmonton was re-elected president for the 1957-58 term, and Mrs. G. H. Villet, Edmonton and Mrs. G. A. Fretwell, Clive, were named vice-presidents. Corresponding secretary is Mrs. P. Sraley, Edmonton and recording secretary is Mrs. J. M. Pavcett of Calgary. Miss M. E. Addison, Edmonton, is treasurer.

Summer Vacations Safety Rules

Each year summer vacations spell tragedy to hundreds of families as accidental drowning takes the lives of both children and adults. Next to the highway, the lake, river or swimming pool is the most lethal vacation hazard.

Swimming is fun and should be enjoyed. Safety is of utmost importance, however, and the All Canada Insurance Federation, recommends these rules for saving lives:

Learn how to swim and teach the children to swim. Do not swim alone. Unless accompanied by a boat, do not swim far from shore. Swim parallel to the shore if you wish to try for distance.

Non-swimmers should not float into deep water on inner tubes or other inflated articles. If the float begins to leak the swimmer is in difficulty.

Do not dive into unfamiliar waters and do not swim beneath diving boards.

If a swimmer is in difficulty, try to rescue him with a boat, a rope or an extended oar. Do not swim to him unless it is absolutely necessary. Often the rescuer also becomes a victim.

At public beaches, swim near the lifeguard stations. Wait for at least an hour after meals before swimming. Beware of undertows in rough water. Do not swim during lightning storms. Learn how to administer artificial respiration.

When health is lost, something is lost;

HIGH FARM COSTS

The price index showing the cost of goods and services used by Canadian farmers, stood at 247.0 (1935-39 equals 100) in January reports the dominion bureau of statistics.

This is nearly 11 points higher than the figures a year earlier.

Higher wage rates and increased farm machinery costs showed the largest gains. About the only commodity that was down in value was seed grain — what the farmer produces himself.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER MAINTAINS ITS INFLUENCE

- How often a successful executive, far from his small-town birthplace — maintains his contacts through regular receipt of his weekly newspaper.
- There is nothing quite like a small town weekly for neighborly news and intimate contacts.
- People in the advertising business talk about selected audiences — sharply focused circulation. They have learned from experience that when a publication is specially edited to appeal to the specific interests of a smaller group of people, its opportunities to make sales are multiplied many times over.
- The weekly newspaper is that kind of publication. Whether its circulation is a few hundred or a few thousand, it represents effective circulation.
- Gather the towns-people and farm folk around you when you advertise. Surround yourself with friendly neighbors — deliver your advertising message through your local weekly newspaper.

Harmattan News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dodd had as recent visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Collinburn, Mrs. Cosan, Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Reed, all of Portland, Ore. All are relatives of Mrs. Dodd.

Mrs. Gladys Johnson has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Jack Wiper. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Margaard and grand-daughter, Mary-Billie.

Donald Dodd is at present working at Edgerton, Alta.

The Harmattan Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Crawshaw on Wednesday, May 29. Articles were turned in for the bazaar.

It was decided to get tickets sold for the quilt so it could be raffled off soon. The door prize was won by Mrs. Donald Dodd.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bill Dodd. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burgoyne (Kathleen Johnson) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Monday, May 27th.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. Law (Mrs. Bill Grant's mother) suffered a heart attack recently. Hope she will be feeling better soon. Mrs. Law will be leaving for Vancouver shortly where she will visit with her son, Dr. Frank Law.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Peterson and family left recently for a holiday in the States, via Vancouver and Seattle.

The Harmattan Home and School Assoc. held its monthly meeting at the school on Monday, May 27, with a very poor attendance.

Discussion took place on fluoridation and whether it should be used in the future. Plans were made for the school picnic.

The nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. Jean Conrad, Mr. Bull and Mrs. M. Knights placed nominations to be voted upon. This resulted in the new slate being:

President, Mrs. Clara Armstrong; vice-president, Mr. Bull; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Bob Strand. Mrs. Korschuh's room won the pennant. The room with the highest score for two years' attendance will be presented with a prize.

Mrs. Korschuh suggested the Home and School offer a $10 scholarship for the grade nine student with the highest standing in the future.

Mrs. Art Walcott then gave a very interesting talk on "Civil Defense." Those interested are asked to take note that Home and School meetings are always on the third Monday in the month.

The Harmattan Women's Club will sponsor a dance at the hall on Friday June 7. Everyone welcome.

Berrydale won the highest average number of points at the annual track meet staged Friday, May 31, with 300 children from Bergen, Inverness, Rugby, Westerdale, Hainstock, Berrydale, McDougall Flats and Harmattan taking part.

LIGHT YOUR WAY WITH BIBLE STUDY

Earl F. Dexter, who has worked among the Navaho Indians of America, tells of a white missionary just arrived in Navaho country to start a new mission. Through an interpreter he told the old chief what his special kind of religion would be for the people.

The old Indian listened and finally nodded his head. The white man was glad because he thought he had put across his idea with the Indian. Then the old man said: "White man, we would be glad to have your religion do all these things for our people. And it may be that we will take up with your religion. But we Indians like to know that we're on the right trail before we go too far. So here is what you do: you settle down and live among us for a long time. We'll watch you, how you live, everything you do. If after a long time we see that the way you live is the kind of life we want to live, maybe we'll take up your religion. We hear a lot of smooth words from your people, but we have not seen so many whose lives talk. That's what we want to see."

Jesus Christ, the blessed Saviour of the world, after promising His followers the gift of the Holy Spirit, told them that they were to be His witnesses unto the utter most part of the earth.

On Pentecost Sunday, observed this year on Sunday, June 9, they were filled with the Holy Ghost and went and preached Jesus as the risen Saviour. But their lives bore testimony fact that they were Christians, for the heathen had to say, "See, how they love one another."

We today also must, through our life, testify of our Lord. Too many humans use smooth words; their actions, however, belie their words. And so we ask: Do you with your life testify of your faith in Jesus, your Lord?

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

President and Mrs. Taylor and their family, accompanied by Miss Eby, attended a musical recital in Mount Royal College, Calgary, on Saturday evening. Miss Marlene Sharrman, a recent student at the college, was a participant in the recital. Marlene will be taking her final examinations for her degree in music on June 24.

We have had word from the boys at Banff. They are holding their jobs well and some of them are able to have two for the summer. It keeps them busy but their employers like them and they do their best. It means school for them in the fall, and they are very diligent about keeping their jobs. LaVerne Traub joined them this week. Ormand Sherick left for work in Edmonton this last weekend.

The faculty of the college extends deep sympathy to the Habermehl family and the sons and daughters of Mr. William Lachman who passed away last Thursday. Mrs. Habermehl was a member of the staff here for a couple of years.

We have started to purchase books for the library. The student project, which reached the $800.00 mark, will be the means by which this will be done. Already several new books have been placed on the shelves and more have been ordered. Also, students are beginning to send in their pledges.

We are receiving some applications for the coming year. One young man from Big Valley and a young lady from Edmonton, have sent theirs in recently. Others are waiting until their returns from the examinations are known. That could make a difference. Here's hoping they all pass.

Some very practical additions have been made to the Taylor apartment. Friends have made it possible for wardrobes and cupboards for storage to be built. Arthur Eby has been very busy doing this and has done a splendid job. The apartment will be much more adequate for the needs of the family now, and the president and his wife are greatly pleased with this kind gesture.

Mrs. Buder returned from Ontario after a month of vacation, and attendance as well at the board meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, of which she is a director in this conference. She stayed for a while with her son in Hamilton.

MERGER OF LARGE CO-OPERATIVES IN OFFING

An announcement regarding the merger of two of Alberta's large farmer co-operatives has been made. The boards of directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool and the Alberta Seed Growers' Co-operative have reached agreement on a proposal by which the Wheat Pool would take over responsibilities and properties of the Seed Growers' association. This was made known in a statement issued jointly by the two organizations.

A special meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool delegates is to be held in Calgary on June 12 at which time the proposal will be presented to them for final ratification.

Details of the transaction and the date of the transfer have not been announced. These will be made public as soon as final arrangements have been made. It is expected the Alberta Wheat Pool will be able to take over operation of the seed business in time to handle the coming crop.

The Alberta Wheat Pool is a large marketing co-operative with a membership of nearly 50,000 and over 535 country elevators located throughout Alberta. The Alberta Seed Growers' Co-operative has a membership in the neighborhood of 12,000 and seed cleaning or storage facilities situated at over 30 points in the province.
